Updates from the Previous Month and the Upcoming Month

October was a remarkable month at Stone Crest. A highlight was, undoubtedly, Halloween, as we delighted in the myriad of costumes showcased by the children in our community. We also enjoyed special treats from Right at Home, as well as those crafted by our own hands during a culinary workshop. All Valley Hospice joined us for various activities, adding to the festive atmosphere. Additionally, Heart to Heart Hospice surprised us with cupcakes during our birthday celebration. We were thrilled to welcome Dave Britton and The Swivel Sticks, who provided enchanting live music entertainment. Our community spirit flourished as we celebrated our diverse religious practices, with participation from Vineyard Church, St. Agnes Church, One Ministries, and Chaplain Karen. From enjoyable games and engaging exercises to lively bingo sessions, October was truly a memorable month!

November promises to be an exciting month, building on the engaging activities we have enjoyed in previous months. Our weekly coffee and tea socials, titled "Express Yourself," will continue to be a cornerstone of our events. Additionally, our popular bingo sessions will also take place weekly. This month, we eagerly anticipate two live musical performances featuring Dave Britton and Harry Matt. We are grateful for the contributions of Vineyard Church, One Ministries, St. Agnes Church, and Chaplain Karen, all of whom enhance our community experience. Culinary workshops, creative chaos sessions, resident choice activities, and many more enjoyable engagements will also extend into November. Stay tuned for more updates!

As we embrace the month of November, we look forward to fostering deeper connections and creating cherished memories. Your participation and enthusiasm are what make our community vibrant and thriving. We encourage everyone to join in, share the joy, and make this month as memorable as October. Here's to another month of laughter, love, and togetherness!

Together, we can make a real difference in the lives of those who need it most.

Thank you for your continued support!

A Burden Shared is a Burden Halved

Ethyl's children were grown. They married and moved to other towns to find employment. Her husband passed away a few years ago. She liked living in her home in her small rural village. Her home held memories of her marriage and raising her family.

It didn't happen all at once. Her neighbors and friends noticed she couldn't do things the way she used to. The children came home a little more often. Ethyl was a determined person. She told her children and friends, "I'm just fine."

One cool autumn day, Ethyl was wandering along the road dressed in her nightgown. That was when family and friends realized maybe Ethyl wasn't "just fine". One of her daughters moved home to help mom while the family tried to figure things out.

The family soon learned they were not the only ones who have ever had to deal with the challenges of aging. Sharing was a way of lifting the burden from their shoulders. Like the Bible says in Galatians 6:2 "Carry each other's burdens and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ."

The family talked about their situation. They gathered resources and discussed short term and long-term plans. They talked about Ethyl's living situation, her finances, personal care, health care options, and any special needs. They discussed ways to keep Ethyl involved with her friends and church. The family was surprised at the resources that were available.

At first Ethyl didn't want to discuss assisted living. The children explained the staff would make life a little easier for her and the family. They could lift some of the burdens of caregiving. This would let her enjoy being mom and grandma with the family. It would also relieve her children of the burden of being full time caregivers. Ethyl liked the idea of making life a little easier for everyone.

Moving into the assisted living facility gave Ethyl and her family comfort knowing that a burden shared is a burden halved. They learned that they didn't need to go through the aging process alone. There are others who have gone through the aging process. There are skilled individuals who can come alongside to help with the burdens that come in this world.

The Bible gives practical advice when it says: "Carry each other's burdens and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ."
